

All mortals must do plentiful good deeds like making garlands out of a mass of flowers.

53. *Yathāpi puppharāsimhā kayirā mālāguṇē bahū
ēvaṃ jātēna maccēna kattabbaṃ kusalaṃ bahurū. (4:10)*

As from a mass of flowers many a garland may be made,
so by one born mortal
should many good deeds be done.
